About the Authors

Widely known as Boston's Beloved Radio Voice, Candy O spent 25 years on the air at Magic 106.7 WMJX where she created the Exceptional Women brand. The founder of My Dove Productions and the Candy O Radio Network, she is a contributor to Living Crue magazine. Candy has interviewed nearly 1000 women from every walk of life and is the host of The Story Behind Her Success podcast and radio series. A lifelong singer and budding songwriter, Candy is featured on the Nelson's Garden theme song and is working on her sophomore album Songs in the Key of Gigi. The recipient of 70 local and national awards for excellence in women's programming, Candy and her husband Tom have a blended family that includes 5 grown children and 8 grandbabies. They live in a lovingly restored 1927 colonial-style home, about a mile away from where Nelson once tended his beautiful garden. Find out more at Candyoterry.com.

After graduating from Assumption College with a degree in English and Communications, Colleen carved her own path in public relations and social influence, working for one of the country's top advertising agencies. Shortly after her first daughter Belle was born, she decided to take a permanent maternity leave to become a stay-at-home-mom. Now the mother of Belle and Rosie, Colleen is also the creator of TheBelleCurveBlog.com. She and her husband Ben live in Mansfield, Massachusetts with their girls.
